Perfect for doors, large windows or as a room divider, the panel glide will add a contemporary look to your home or office. With a choice of adding timber battens, concealed rear battens or a more simplistic plain panel, your options are endless.

In a block-out fabric for complete privacy, a sunscreen fabric for maximum view or a light filtering fabric for heat protection, panel glides are perfect for almost any application. With the size and number of panels your choice, this style of window covering really is personalized.

Options:

- ◇ Pelmets
- ◇ Timber Battens
- ◇ Concealed Battens
- ◇ Number of Panels
- ◇ Stacking configuration
